Come along, keep history alive by making It.

This Society aims at making the general public more aware and appreciative of the story and history of our locality. It also endeavours to see that listed buildings, historic objects and sites are preserved.

The Society organises monthly illustrated talks, walks around town, outings to places of interest, Spring and Harvest dinners, and an occasional historical celebrations.

Its preserves a photographic record of old North Bucks, and now has 12,000 slides. Its issues a Newsletter and pamphlets, and publishes re-prints of local history books and collections of postcards.
